
27 Online Public Health Resources
Diet, Mental Health, Smoking, Diabetes, Alcohol, Sexual health, Sleep, ...
Expert Review
Select QAs for Lay Users
533 Expert-Grounded Public Health QA Pairs
Question: How often should I check my cholesterol?
Answer: Your doctor will likely recommend cholesterol checks during your physicals based on your age ...
RepQA
Suggestions 29.8%
Fact 31.7%
Definition 12.6%
Rationale 25.9%
Evaluation
Question: How often should I check my cholesterol?
LLM Agent
Response: Most adults should check their cholesterol every 4 to 6 years. If you have heart disease, diabetes, or family history of high cholesterol, you may need to check it more often.
Evaluation Metrics Calculation
Readability: Flesch–Kincaid grade
Readability: Professional language
Readability: Yngve depth
Accuracy: Informative cosine